Sir:

This is responsive to the Office Action mailed June 27, 2001, in connection with this application. Applicants understand from an inquiry to the Examiner that this is a final rejection, even though the Office Action itself is inconsistent in this regard. In order to enable applicants to address the matters raised for the first time in this Office Action, applicants request that the following amendments be entered. Furthermore, applicants believe that these amendments will place the application into condition for allowance or at least into better
